   It is strongly recommended that prospective authors contact the Co-Editors before beginning to write, to ensure there is no significant overlap with other manuscripts in progress.

2. Submission is a representation that the manuscript has not been published previously and is not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. A statement transferring copyright from the authors (or their employers, if they hold the copyright) to University of Chicago Press will be required before the manuscript can be accepted for publication. The Co-Editors will supply the necessary forms for this transfer. Such a written transfer of copyright, which previously was assumed to be implicit in the act of submitting a manuscript, is necessary under the U.S. Copyright Law in order for the publisher to carry through the dissemination of research results and reviews as widely and effectively as possible.

3. Type double-spaced on one side of 8½ x 11 inch white paper using generous margins on all sides, and submit the original and two copies (including, where possible, copies of all illustrations and tables). All copies must be dark, sharp, and clear. Computer-generated manuscripts must be of letter quality (not dot-matrix). An electronic version of the paper on a 3.5-inch disk should accompany the hard-copy manuscripts, and the word-processing program used should be specified.

4. Order the elements comprising the manuscript as follows: title page, abstract, key words, text, appendix, acknowledgments, references, bibliography, tables, and figure caption list. All acknowledgments (including those for grant and financial support) should be typed in one paragraph on a separate page that directly precedes the References-Cited section. Manuscripts should generally be 25-25 (double-spaced) test pages in length.

5. A title page is to be provided and should include the title of the article, the author's name (no degrees), author's affiliation, and suggested running head. The affiliation should comprise the department, institution (university or company), city, and state or nation and should be typed as a footnote to the author's name. The suggested running head should be less than 50 characters (including spaces) and should comprise the article title or an abbreviated version thereof. For office purposes, the title page should include the complete mailing address and telephone number of the one author designated to review proofs.

6. An abstract is to be provided, preferably no longer than 50-100 words.

7. A list of 4 key words is to be provided directly below the abstract. Key words should express the precise content of the manuscript, as they are used for indexing purposes.

8. Illustrations (photographs, drawings, diagrams, and charts) are to be numbered in one consecutive series of Arabic numerals. The captions for illustrations should be typed on a separate sheet of paper. All illustrations must be complete and final, i.e., camera-ready. Drawings should be large, glossy prints, showing high contrast. Drawings should be prepared with India ink. Either the original drawings or high-quality photographic prints are acceptable. Each numbered figure must be on a separate sheet of sturdy paper not exceeding 8½ x 11 inches in size. Identify figures on the back with author's name and number of the illustration. Electronic artwork submitted on disk should be in TIFF or EPS format (1200 dpi for line and 300 dpi for half-tones and gray-scale art). Color art should be in the CMYK color space. Artwork should be on a separate disk from the text, and hard copy must accompany the disk.

9. Tables should be numbered with Roman numerals and referred to by number in the text. Each table should be typed on a separate sheet of paper. Center the title above the table, and type explanatory footnotes (indicated by superscript lowercase letters) below the table.

10. List references alphabetically at the end of the paper in a section entitled References Cited and refer to them in the text by number and year in parentheses. Where there are three or more authors, only the first author’s name is given in the text, followed by et al. References should include in this order: last names and initials of all authors, year published, title of article, name of publication, volume number, and inclusive pages. The style and punctuation of the references should conform to that used in the journal—illuminated by the following examples:

   Journal articles

   Book

   Contribution to a Book

After References Cited, include a separate section entitled Bibliography of Recent Literature. Bibliography entries should not be cited in the text (and therefore not appear in the References Cited). List entries alphabetically, and follow the same style as the examples above.

11. Footnotes should be avoided. When their use is absolutely necessary, footnotes should be numbered consecutively using Arabic numerals and should be typed at the bottom of the page to which they refer. Place a line above the footnote, so that it is set off from the text. Use the appropriate superscript numeral for citation in the text.

12. After a manuscript has been accepted for publication and after all revisions have been incorporated, manuscripts should be submitted to the Editor’s Office as hard copy accompanied by electronic files on disk. Label the disk with identifying information—software, journal name, and first author’s last name. The disk must be the one from which the accompanying manuscript (finalized version) was printed out. The Editor’s Office cannot accept a disk without its accompanying, matching hard-copy manuscript.

13. The Journal makes no page charges. Reprints are available to authors, and order forms with the current price schedule are sent with proofs.
